Ms. Wairokpam Luxmi Chanu D/o Sh. W. Amuba Meitei, is resident of Thoubal District Manipur, and class 12 passed. She was unemployed and looking for employment. Her family income was not much and she wanted to earn and support her family. One day, she was told by her friend about the training programme on Handloom Entrepreneur, organized through HIMCON, sponsored by National Backward Classes Finance and Development Corporation (NBCFDC) under Pradhan Mantri Dakshta Aur Kushalta Sampann Hitgrahi (PM-DAKSH) Yojana, which was going to start. She got motivated and accordingly applied for training programme online through PM-DAKSH Portal. During the training programme, she acquired the skills and learnt weaving cloth.

After the successful completion of training programme, she has started making various Handloom products (as per market demand & potential) at her own residence by own fund/investment. Through this work she is able to work from her home itself and is able to earn Rs. 9000/- to 10000/- per month. Before availing the Training, her family income is very low and after availing the training she is supporting her family with her earnings. She is now contributing to her family income and thankful for the training programme she was offered under PM-DAKSH. This Training has made her more confident about her work. She is now able to support her family in a much better way.
